

Flow Chart

➤ BookStore – User Flow

1. Start

- Users open the BookStore application.
- The home page displays featured books, categories, and offers.

2. User Registration / Login

- New users create an account using their name, email, and password.
- Existing users log in securely to access their profile and orders.

3. Browse & Search Books

- Users browse books by category, author, or genre.
- They can search for books using the search bar.
- Filters such as price, rating, and category help users find books quickly.

4. View Book Details

Users select a book to view detailed information.

Details include:

- Book title
- Author
- Genre
- Description
- Price
- Stock availability
- Book cover image

5. Add Book to Cart

- Users choose the desired quantity.
- Selected books are added to the shopping cart.
- Users can update quantities or remove books before checkout.

6. Checkout & Payment

- Users review the cart and verify their order.
- They enter the delivery address.
- Users choose a payment method and complete the payment securely.

7. Order Confirmation

After successful payment, the order is placed.

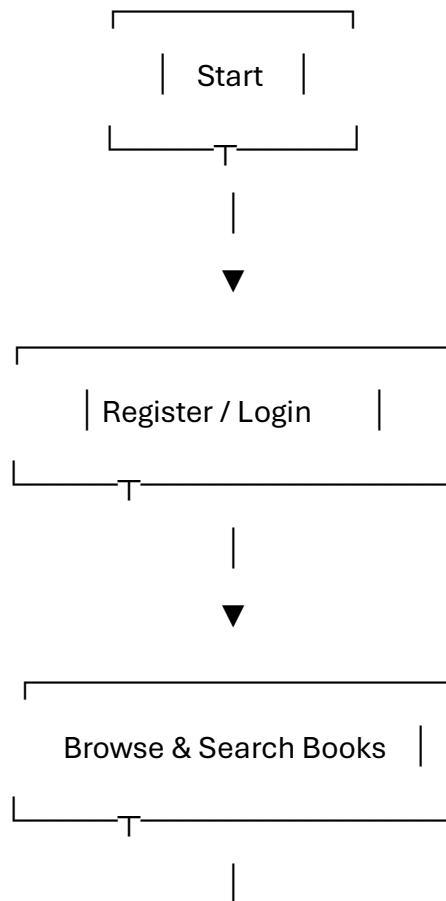

Users receive:

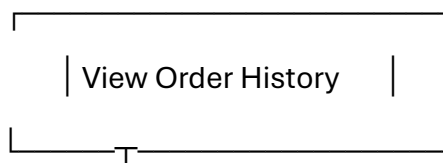

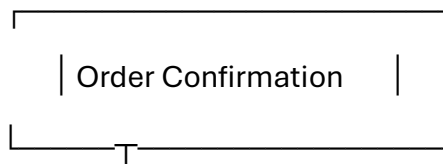

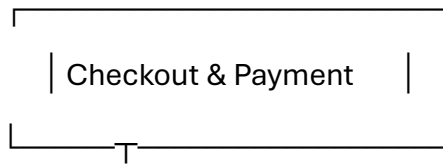

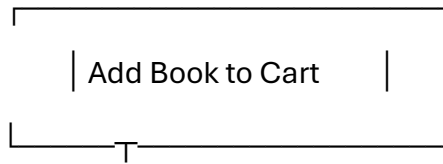

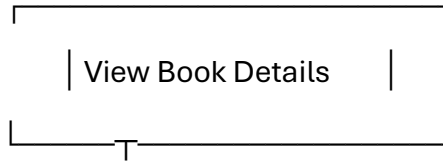

- Order ID
- Purchase summary
- Total amount
- Estimated delivery details
- A confirmation message is displayed.

8. View Order History / End

- Users can view all previous and current orders.
- They can check order status and purchase history.
- The shopping process is completed successfully.

Simple Flow Diagram

| End |